Multicultural Coexistence Coordinator Interviews International Students Active in Shibata City!

This month, we interviewed Ms. Ele, who came to Shibata from Italy to study abroad! I heard stories about life in Shibata and high school life.

Ms. Ele, has a lovely smile & is impressive.

At first, she seemed nervous, but she gradually opened up to me and told me a lot of stories!

(Right)Ms.Ele

Ms. Ele (Cerino Eleonora)

She is from Lecco, Italy and she's 17 years old.
She attends art classes in Italian school and she is good at drawing.

She came to Japan as a semester student of the AFS Program Spring Troupe, and she is studying abroad in the science and mathematics department of Shibata High School in the second grade until August.

Her favorite dishes are ramen and sushi.

"I have lost a very important period (15-16 years old) because I had to stay at home all the time due to the coronavirus." My life at that time was very monotonous. I thought

I needed to do something new, so after consulting with my best friend, I decided to try studying abroad.

I chose Japan as my study abroad destination because I have liked Japanese culture and Japanese language. I can only stay for three more months, but I want to stay longer."

—What is your impression of Shibata City?

"I usually only go to high school and train stations, but the people are very kind. I'm sometimes taking a walk. I also saw the cherry blossoms at Shibata Castle, and it was very beautiful."

-How is school life in Japan?

"It's nice one. I like the 10 minute break. In Italy, we have a 3-hour class, then a 10-minute break, and another 3-hour class, but in Japan we have a 1-hour class, then a 10-minute break, and another 1-hour class. Sometimes we eat sweets during our breaks."

-Has your impression of Japan changed from before you came?

I heard that Japanese people are very kind, but sometimes they are straight and strict.

However, when I came, I thought it was more friendly than I had heard.

I also heard that many people were very shy, and I thought it was true!

I'm really shy in Italy, but I think I'm friendly in Japan.

-Did you have any culture shock?

Nothing special, but an earthquake. (Once or twice in my life in Italy, but already 3 times in Japan). Also, I was surprised to have a health checkup at school.

Because we don't do it in Italy.

-Do you have any dreams or plans for the future?

I have to choose a university, but I haven't really decided what I want to be yet.

I am here to understand myself better.

I need to find my character and understand what I want to be and what I want to do with my life.

I don't know about the future yet, but I'm pretty sure it's not math or physics [laughs].

-What is the best memory with your host family?

It is talking with them at lunch time.

I talked to them a lot about my diary written in Japanese.

-Do you speak in English with your host family?

At first, I talked to them in English, but I want to be able to speak in Japanese soon, so I speak in Japanese as much as I can.

-Where did you go out with your host family?

I went to see tulips in Gosen city.

I went on a picnic to a park where there were many animals in Tainai city.

-Please say something for Shibata Ayame News readers.

Stay happy, be positive!

Ms. Ele looks enjoying Shibata life. Her exchange life is almost 3 months. We want her to make lot memories! We are cheering for her activities.

We also spoke to Ele's host family.

-Why did you decide to become a host family?

I enjoyed the experience of hosting a short-term homestay in the past, and my host family took care of my children when they stayed with me, so I would like to look back and return the favor.

- How about actually trying it? What do you enjoy doing?

She hardly feels the language barrier and enjoys communicating with Ele, who is rich in sensitivity.

— Is there anything you pay attention to when becoming a host family?

Since they are not customers, they take care by themselves and experience their daily lives as students. They listen to how they were doing at school that day and give them the necessary support and advice.

-What would you like to do with Ele in the future?

She says she wants to go to Disneyland, so we plan to go with her.
